

Junior Sailing MAKING WAVES

Hope Town, Abaco, Bahamas

February, 2017

Highlights of February:

Advanced class sail to Johnnie's Cay – Upwind all the way, the sailors were required to do roll-tacks “on the whistle”.

Instructor Logan Rowell explains the roll-tack maneuver

Team photo at Johnnie's Cay

Beginner and Advanced Beginner Optis sailing in the harbor

Grand Finale for Session 1 – sail on the Abaco Rage to the Man-O-War Flea Market

HOMER LOWER REGATTA TO BE HELD ON ELBOW CAY MAR. 25-26

After 25 years of organizing the Homer Lowe Regatta in Marsh Harbour, the baton has been passed to Hope Town. This is an invitational regatta, traditionally a regatta for adult Sunfish Sunfish sailors, in recent years also for Optimist Dinghies, and this year an experimental 420 class. Bahamians and non-Bahamians are eligible.

Sailors from Nassau, Grand Bahamas, and other islands will be here competing at a very high level. Also present will be Junior Sailors from various islands.

Schedule:

Friday, March 24, 2017:

Registration and welcome BBQ

Saturday, March 25:

9:00 Skippers Meeting

2 morning races, 2 afternoon races

Sunday, March 26, 2017:

2 morning races

Lunch and Awards in Hope Town

The event is sponsored jointly by the Abaco Rage Syndicate and Hope Town Junior Sailing.

Hope Town Junior Sailing, Hope Town, Abaco, Bahamas
hopetownjuniorsailing@gmail.com